GCE A-Level Results Release: Supporting Your Teen

Dear Parents,

The 2023 A-Level results will be released soon. Regardless of the outcome, it is important for our teens to know that they are loved for the person that they have grown up to be, and that their grades do not define who they are in our eyes. The social and emotional support you provide will be especially necessary and valuable in helping our teens manage their emotions and be positive when deciding their next steps.

Do take this opportunity to have open conversations with your teen about his/her interests and choices and build his/her pathways together.

Resources for Parents

For more resources on providing social and emotional support, affirming your teen, and supporting your teen's transition through post A-Level education, please refer to: https://go.gov.sg/selresforparents. You may also wish to refer to the What's Next pamphlet (https://go.gov.sg/whats-next-alevel) and available Education and Career Guidance (ECG) resources on the MySkillsFuture Student Portal (Pre-University) (https://go.gov.sg/MySFPreU).

Please also refer to the attached information sheet for more tips and resources on supporting your teen.

ECG Counselling Support

For ECG counselling support, students may contact the ECG Counsellor in their schools or make an ECG counselling appointment with the ECG Centre @ MOE (Grange Road) between 19 February and 16 March 2024 via the appointment booking form (https://go.gov.sg/moe-ecg-centre).

Collection of GCE A-Level Results

Arrangements have been made for school candidates to receive their results from their schools. School candidates who are unwell should seek medical attention and not return to school to collect their results.

School candidates who are unable to collect their results in person may access their results online via Singapore Examinations and Assessment Board's (SEAB) Candidates Portal at www.seab.gov.sg. School candidates who are eligible for Singpass can use their Singpass account to access SEAB's Candidates Portal. School candidates who are International Students will receive their system-generated username via email.

The Candidates Portal (CP) User Guide is attached for your reference.

Thank you.
